Tom heads to debut international bout

MARTIAL ARTS: Bedford muay thai fighter Tom Berrington will be competing in his first international fight in Corfu on Sunday.

The 24-year-old, who trains out of the Eagles thai boxing Gym on Amphill Road, is a member of the England Amateur Team.

He will be heading to the event this weekend, that is being run by the International Federation of Muay Thai Amateurs.

He warmed up for the bout with an impressive win at the back end of last month against the London and Home Counties champion, which was also ideal preparation for the upcoming World Championships in Thailand in November.

Chub haul lands Paul the Hospital Cup

Angling

THE 2009 Bedford Hospital Cup has been won by Vauxhall AC's Paul Caton who landed ten chub for a total weight of 33lb 9oz from peg 63 on the Kempston stretch of the River Great Ouse on Sunday.

The annual charity match attracted 85 anglers which delighted organisers Alex Hayward and Blunham AC's Graham Palmer who were able to confirm £800 had been raised for hospital funds.

On hand at Kempston Liberal Club to present the awards was Junior organiser Alex Hayward and Blunham AC's Graham Palmer who were able to confirm £800 had been raised for hospital funds.

They presented the trophy to the winner - along with a prize total of £600, £300 of which was donated by Blunham AC - and to runner-up Chris Frith (also Vauxhall AC) who brought 11lb 11oz of dace to the scales from peg one at Oakley.

Third place went to Paul Hardy (Pickfords) with 11lb 8oz from peg 75 at Kempston while in fourth was James Drakulich, a former junior winner who had a 10lb 13oz perch bag from his Oakley swim thanks to his mum!

As soon as James reached peg five he realised that his worm bait had been left in Kempston so his mum rushed to his rescue only to need rescuing herself moments later when she came surrounded by a herd of cows!

Mick Burrell took the fifth placed prize with 9lb 12oz from peg 89 at Kempston.

A special award was made to Kempston AC and local charity angling stalwart Ken Green who is leaving the Bedfordshire to live in St Austell, Cornwall. He
